NOTE FOR: Lt. Gen. James A. Williams
Director, Defense Intelligence Agency

Jim,

I've checked with our analysts and understand that they have been advising J-2's and DIA of intelligence briefings scheduled at unified and specified commands. Perhaps they have not gone high enough at DIA, and that's something we can certainly work on.

Other than that, we're puzzled--if you could give me some specifics, we can follow up.

TO: Mr. John McMahon
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

John,

Several months ago we spoke about the necessity to make J-2's at commands, as well as DIA, aware of intelligence briefers scheduled at the various unified and specified commands. The topic was raised at the Senior Military Intelligence Officers Conference in March but I chose not to follow up.

Since then, I have had additional calls about both DIA and CIA analysts who show up unannounced to brief either the CINC or the staff. Needless to say, this places the J-2 in an awkward position.

We're tightening up our travel request/visit announcement procedures and I would appreciate it if CIA would do the same.
